Performa Floor, Making the Difference!

The first thing people notice about a home is the floor, and with Performa Floor, your floor's first impression will be a lasting one of beauty and elegance. Performa Floor specializes in hardwood floors, creating works of art in everything from domestic oak to the world's most exotic hardwoods. From the installation of new floors, the refinishing of old floors, to the creation of beautiful custom floor inlays, you can count on our expert professional craftsmen for a job well done every time.

Established in 1986 owner Brenda Palmer and her staff are dedicated to giving the finest service possible to their clients. They even offer classes to the do-it-yourselfer. Experienced craftsmen offer you the choices and detail you will get at no other flooring company in the greater Portland area.
